Alkon Helps OEM Trailer Efficiency

A Southern OEM trailer manufacturer required a custom fitting to resolve challenges in their testing process. By switching to Alkon's Push-To-Connect DOT Fittings, the OEM increased end of the line leakage first pass yield from 60% to 97% and reduced installation time by 33%. With expert on-site support and air system optimization, Alkon helped drive cost savings and streamline production.

Boosting Agricultural Equipment Reliability

An agricultural dealer faced frequent pneumatic cylinder failures, leading to costly downtime. Alkon's customized Allenair cylinders lasted 13,000 acres, 6x longer than competitors, reducing downtime and costs. With durable, rebuildable designs, Alkon helped boost efficiency and productivity for farmers.
